DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show the other input of the comparator 40 in Figures 1 and 3 (i.e., the other input that receive the reference voltage to compare with the signal at node 14) as described in the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d).

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 4-6 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 4, lines 2 and 4, "further" should be deleted.

Claim 5 is objected to because it includes the informalities of claim 4.

Claim 6, line 2, "further" should be deleted.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claim 5, the recitation "the switching means is coupled between the control logic and a node between the second capacitor and the second resistor" is misdescriptive because it is inconsistent with what is shown and disclosed. Clearly, Figure 3 shows the switching means S1 is coupled between node 14 (i.e., output of the amplifier 30) and node 12 (i.e., a node between the second capacitor and the second resistor), and the switching means is not coupled between the output control logic (50) and node 12. Thus, the recitation "the switching means is coupled between the control logic and a node between the second capacitor and the second resistor" is misdescriptive. Clarification and/or appropriate correction is requested.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Oono et al. (USP 6,246,282).

Note that Figure 2 of the Oono et al. reference discloses a circuit, which includes an inverting-gain amplifier (21), a comparator (30) for comparing an output signal (22) of the inverting-gain amplifier with a reference voltage ( $V_{ref}$ ); and feeding back (by switches 24 and 26) the output signal (22) of the inverting-gain amplifier (21) when there is a state change in the compared result (i.e., the compared result of the comparator 30 controls the state of the switches 24 and 26 through control logic circuit 32-33). Note that it is clearly that the state change of the output of the comparator 30 is a level changed from high to low or from low to high. Thus, because all the structures of the claims are fully met, so the method of claims 7 and 8 are met.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1-3 are presently allowed.

Claims 4 and 6, if amended to overcome the informalities set forth above, would be allowed because they depend on allowable claim 1.

Claim 5, if amended to overcome the indefinites and informalities set forth above, would be allowed because it depends on allowable claim 1.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
